DR. GERHARD DEFENDS ATTITUDE OF GERMANY

Discusses Invasion of Belgium in Address at the Atlanta Theater

A defense of Germany's attitude in regard to Belgium neutrality and the assertion that the United States will be a dominant factor in whatever peace negotiations close the war, were outstanding features of an address delivered at the Atlanta Theater Monday night by Dr. Meyer Gerhardt, prize counselor to the colonial ministry of Germany, now touring the United States in behalf of the Geneva Red Cross.

He declared that by entering into a secret treaty with England in 1906, the terms of which included the provision that in case of war in Europe, England would at once transport 100,000 soldiers to Belgium, Albert's kingdom had taken an attitude inimical to Germany and had thus nullified any treaty she had with the fatherland.

"On account of the position of the United States in the international scheme of things she will be a power in the final adjustments of peace," stated Dr. Gerhardt. "Because this country is an aggressive commercial nation with a disposition to trade abroad, she would feel that her interests lie with Germany rather than to expect consideration from the foreign policy of England."

NO FORMAL CHARGES AGAINST POLICE DEPT.

Probe Set for Wednesday Night but No Complaints Received

Although the probe of the police department's efficiency by a special committee is slated to begin on Wednesday night, Chairman S. A. Wardlaw declares that he has yet received no formal charges against the department or its members, nor has any citizen signed his intention of appearing before the investigating committee.

In the event the citizens who have publicly and privately criticized the department do not appear before the committee, Wardlaw says the committee itself will commence a thorough study of the department and its methods to see if the committee can recommend changes, which would increase its efficiency.

Mr. Wardlaw has announced that the investigators will be glad to hear on Wednesday night from any citizen who has a complaint against the department, but that complaints or charges against individual members must be preferred in writing.

STEAM ROLLERS USED BY COUNCIL ON MAYOR

Executive Robbed of Purchasing Power and Pryor Passing Over Veto

Council rode rough shod over Mayor Woodward Monday afternoon, robbing the executive of his purchasing power and passing the Pryor street paving resolution over his veto.

By an amendment to the law creating the office of purchasing agent the council struck out of the executive's hand the power to purchase the material for the paving of Pryor street.

Incidentally the council during Monday's session gave the mayor's chairman of the finance committee, Councilman A. W. Faringer, several stinging rebuffs.

The amendment, introduced by Councilman C. W. Smith, after it had been passed by a majority of eight, required that the purchasing agent be elected by the council instead of appointed by the mayor, and it practically abolished the present purchasing department, which consists of the mayor, the chairman of the finance committee, the controller and the purchasing agent.

Councilman Faringer vigorously protested the passage of the measure, declaring council would make a serious mistake by throwing the purchasing agent, W. B. Chambers, out of a job which saved the city $74,000 in 1914.

Councilman James B. Lee and several others who favored the amendment came back at this statement by declaring that the amendment was not aimed at purchasing agent Chambers, but would simply have the effect of taking the position from the domination of one man.

"It will give the purchasing agent a free hand," he said, "for now the purchasing agent's job is jeopardized when he has to agree with the council."

The standing members of council, who were taken by surprise by the amendment and it passed by an overwhelming five vote vote after a very short debate.

By the terms of the amendment the office of the purchasing agent must be filled at the next council meeting by the body, and of course, Mr. Chambers will be a candidate to retain the office under the new system. It is generally believed he will be retained.

The resolution to purchase brick to pave South Pryor street was passed by council by a vote of 15 to 5 only Councilmen Faringer, Ashley, Faringer, Johnson, the fifth, and Johnson, the sixth, standing by the executive. According to members of the second ward delegation, work on the pavement will begin at once.

YET TO BE EXPECTED.

The mayor's veto of the purchasing agent amendment is regarded as certain, but friends of the measure claim they had enough votes pledged to override a veto when the paper was introduced.

Mayor Woodward declared Tuesday that he would have been better had the council abolished the position. Under the present system, he says, the position has proved of great benefit to the city and the department should be strengthened.

"By placing it under the control of council," said the mayor, "with council's system of trading votes, great harm will be done the city."

"Jugling the people," said the mayor, when asked if he cared to continue on council's action, "that they had better steadily rise in their minds and force a change of the form of government."

"The situation is getting worse and worse and unless the people speedily rise they will find things in a chaotic state when they take the government into their own hands."

The mayor also indicated that he will veto a resolution changing the kind of pavement to be laid on Grand street from bituminous to wood block, which was passed by council Monday.

SIXTY-SEVEN PAINTING.

Council got in another shot at Councilman Faringer when he introduced a resolution to appropriate $500 to defray the expenses of the chairman of the finance committee, himself, the purchasing agent, Mr. Chambers, and City Controller J. H. Galloway, to go to inspect municipal warehouses in other cities. The majority quickly tabled this resolution and by the tabling vote it appears that the paper will never be taken from the table or paid the courtesy of another vote.

Council elected George P. Dickson, formerly a member of the police board, a member of the board of trustees of the Carnegie library from the first ward, to succeed Willie M. Everett, resigned. It re-elected George M. Brown a member of the sinking fund committee.

ALDERMAN DUNLAP QUILTS COMMITTEE ON POLICE

Mayor Woodward has invited several council members this year to resign from committees, and none of his invitations have been accepted. But now comes Alderman Edgar Dunlap and, unsoftened, hands in his resignation to one of council's most important committees, that of police.

The mayor has tendered the vacant place to Councilman E. H. Inman.

Alderman Dunlap, explaining his resignation, declared he simply had more committee work than he could properly attend to, so he picked out the committee he cared least for and resigned.

The police committee is now composed of Johnson, of the fifth, chairman, Faringer, Inman, Armstrong and Faringer.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOKS YOUNG, PRETTY

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally that Nobody can tell.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly combined, darkens hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time by morning the gray disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy. SAYS GERMANY CANNOT BE STARVED BY ALLIES

Atlanta Citizen in Berlin Gives Views on War in Letter
to V. H. Kriegshaber

That Germany cannot be starved out, while in England the laboring classes are striking because they must pay so dearly for food, and that the allies will be unable to break through the Dardanelles, are assertions in a letter which Victor H. Kriegshaber received from an Atlanta citizen temporarily in Berlin, and which he requested The Journal to publish.

The letter follows:
I wrote you the other day about the English blockade and the efforts of the English government to starve Germany, but with force of arms, just with the force of starvation.

I don't worry about this as it is more a question than anything else, the purpose being to create political effect or to cheer up the populace of England and France. Germany cannot be starved out any more than they can be, for the population of Germany can be starved out.

There is plenty of food available at reasonable prices, whereas in England the laboring classes are striking because they must pay so dearly for the necessities of life. To properly oversee and prevent needless waste and to provide against every possible contingency is an unfavorable thing, but it is now being planned, the government took hold and has organized thoroughly the distribution of flour and grain, but I hear that not only is there an ample supply for the coming months but sufficient warehouses to satisfy all requirements until next fall or for three months after the harvest period of the crop that is going to be made.

We personally see no sign of any hardship. The vegetable stores, fruit stores, butcher shops and groceries run along as they did a year ago. Every luxury and delicacy is available. The best and the ordinary restaurants maintain all prices.

PLenty OF BREAD.
The only restriction is on bread. On that, there is a limit of consumption for each adult of one-half of the United States pounds per person weekly, which is a lot more than we consume. There is so much thing as the government taking over all food supplies. That is some more of the propaganda of the United States and if it is as they say I would urge you to publish the real truth in the Atlanta papers.

I don't worry about the fall of Constantinople, as I don't believe the allies will be able to break through. Thus far they have lost one-fifth of their attacking vessels and are not further than the entrance of the Dardanelles and the real difficulties of attack have not even commenced.

One question about Italy has undoubtedly been settled by diplomatic contract and Italy will get all or part of what she wanted, viz: The Trentino or Italian Austria by peaceful means and so that actual difficulty for Germany has been alleviated.

Greco also refused to join the entente and so order is more than likely to be maintained in the Balkans, as all states fear the prospects of Russian domination over Constantinople and the Dardanelles.

The American press in its anti-German spirit will not perhaps give out the exact status, as it depends upon French and French telegrams and gets twisted in consequence. I hope the United States will not submit to English aggressions on United States commerce with Germany or the United States to commerce with neutrals when England suggests that the allies must ultimately reach Germany or might originally have come from Germany. MRS. MCCARTHY NOT IN DANGER FROM ACCIDENT

Prominent Woman Shot in the Side by Pistol She Was Examining, Recovering

Shot in the left side just above the waist while examining an automatic derringer Monday night at her home, 209 North Boulevard, Mrs. William McCarthy, president of Atlanta chapter of the United Daughters of Confederacy, and a leader in women's club circles, was painfully injured, and is now in a private ward at Grady hospital recovering from the wound.

Mrs. McCarthy had borrowed the pistol from a friend the day before because she was afraid of burglars, said her husband, cashier of the local agency for the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance company. At 7 o'clock Monday evening she was inspecting the pistol to see how it worked when her two daughters were in another room, he said, and he at his office. The revolver was discharged, the bullet entering the left side a few inches below the heart. Mrs. McCarthy's daughter rushed into the room and neighbors helped them call an ambulance and notify Mr. McCarthy. Mrs. McCarthy was taken to the Grady, and Dr. W. E. Westmoreland called to attend her.

"The wound is only a flesh wound," Dr. Westmoreland told a Journal reporter Tuesday, "and in no way fatal. Mrs. McCarthy is suffering some pain, but she should be able to leave the hospital within ten days."

Besides being president of Atlanta chapter, Mrs. McCarthy is an active member of the Order of the Eastern Star, patron of the Soldiers home and generally a leader in women's work. She has many friends who will be deeply concerned at the news of her injury.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single particle of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces will last you a long time. No matter how much dandruff you have—This simple remedy never fails.—(Adv.)

COUNTY TAX ASSESSORS MEET APRIL 23 AND 24

First Convention Will Be Held in House of Representatives at Capitol

County tax assessors from every county in Georgia are expected to attend the first annual convention of these officials, which will be held in the house of representatives at the state capital Friday and Saturday, April 23 and 24.

The call for this convention was sent out several weeks ago by Judge John C. Carhart, the state tax commissioner, who believes an interchange of ideas and a discussion of the work done by the assessors in the various counties during the past year, the first year of the tax equalization law, will result in a more uniform system of taxation throughout the state.

PLANS ARE MADE FOR OSTEOPATHIC CONVENTION

Following a meeting in Atlanta with the state secretary, Dr. Otto H. Grimes, and the chairman of the executive committee, Dr. M. C. Hardin, Dr. J. W. Elliott, president of the Georgia Osteopathic association, has returned to his home in Cordell.

Plans were made for the annual meeting of the association at Cordell on May 14-16. Dr. Ruth S. Arnold, who recently addressed the local osteopaths, has returned to Cincinnati.

FOURTEEN POLICEMEN TO BE RETIRED ON PENSIONS

Matron Bohnfield Among Six
Who Voluntarily Ask for Retirement

The names of fourteen veteran policemen will be presented to the board of police commissioners at its next meeting by Councilman Edwin F. Johnson with the recommendation of Chief Beavers that they be retired on pensions and their places filled with younger men.

Six of the policemen on the list, including Matron Mary Bohnfield, have applied for pensions voluntarily. The police commissioners have the authority to recommend to council the retirement of the others, regardless of the wish of the policemen.

The six who will apply for pensions are A. D. Brannen, W. F. Whitley, A. J. Whitley, T. J. Tippen, R. A. Baker, and Mrs. Bohnfield.

MAY DELIVERY WHEAT BREAKS NEARLY 7 CENTS

CHICAGO, April 20.—May delivery wheat broke almost 7 cents a bushel today on free selling of small lots at the exchange opening, which caught a number of speculators.

May closed last night at $1.54 3/4, and today sold as low as $1.54 1/2, then rebounded with almost equal suddenness to within a cent of last night. New crop points were comparatively unaffected.

The policemen whose retirement will be recommended are J. C. Carville, E. J. Norman, George Stout, H. A. Thompson, J. H. Hooten, T. L. Hayne and Robert Branson.

The fourteen members of the force were picked for retirement by the chief after a recent conference with Councilman Johnson, chairman of the council police committee.

SUPREME COURT PUTS OFF SHRINE CASE HEARING

Postponement Made Because Several Justices May Be Disqualified

Owing to the fact that two and perhaps three justices of the state supreme court will hold themselves disqualified to pass upon the appeal case of Charles Falson, Rabban temple, et al vs. Forrest Adair, et al, which case came out of the injunction proceedings brought by Forrest Adair and other nobles of Vashub Temple, Order of the Mystical Shrine, against Falson and other negroes, who it was alleged, had organized an invasion of the Mystic Shrine among the negroes in Georgia and other states, the supreme court Monday postponed arguments on the appeal.

Several weeks ago Judge H. L. Patterson of the Blue Ridge circuit, granted an injunction against the negro order and its officers, the case having gone before him because the judges of the state supreme court were disqualified in the ground of being members of the shrine or closely related to members of that order.

When the defendants appealed from Judge Patterson's injunction and the case was set for argument Monday morning, it was announced in the supreme court that arguments would be postponed until Governor Briston could appoint another supreme court judge to sit with the supreme court in the place of the one whose disqualification rendered the case because of being members of the

MOTHER AWARDED $4,117 FOR DEATH OF HER SON

Mrs. F. M. Berry, Is Given Verdict Against George B. Powell

Mrs. F. M. Berry, living on the Planter's Ferry road, mother of Prince F. Berry, who died following injuries received while riding with George B. Powell in the latter's automobile more than two years ago, was awarded a verdict of $4,117 against Powell by a jury in Judge Pendleton's division of the superior court Monday.

Prince F. Berry, according to the petition, was a passenger in the Powell machine. They were riding out on the Roswell road January 31, 1912, when the automobile, in making a turn struck an embankment, injuring Berry. He died February 4, following.

Mrs. Berry brought the suit through George Westmoreland and J. Caleb Clarke. She asked for $25,000, alleging that her son's death was caused by Powell's reckless driving. In her petition, she declares that her son was a bachelor earning $200 a month and was her support.

The defendant was represented by L. Z. Rosser and Simmons & Simmons, and contended that if there had been any recklessness on Powell's part, Berry was a party to it and offered no protest.

The Telephone Democracy

IT has been the policy of the Bell system to educate the public to use the telephone, and to place a Bell telephone within the reach of everyone. In this country there are ten telephones to each hundred persons as compared with one to a hundred in Europe.

Americans of all sorts use the telephone freely, because the chances are that the person they want to reach is either a telephone subscriber or can be easily reached by telephone.

The Bell System places at the disposal of every home, office or place of business the kind of service best suited to their needs and purchasing power. That is why there are so many different classes of service and the reason Bell Telephone service is within the reach of every class of citizen.

EXERCISE AND

GRECIAN BEAUTY
WHAT IT MEANS

Many thousands of women are nowadays paying attention to physical culture and the proper exercise of their body muscles. Where, thirty years ago or fifty years ago there was no thought expended on this science, which is the reason the Greeks, both men and women, excelled in beautiful and symmetrical forms was because of the attention they paid to the proper exercise. Then, too, they were untrammelled by corsets, shoes and the inconveniences of clothing. To the minds of some women the idea of physical exercise conveys only the idea of hard fatiguing work. Mild exercise, continued day after day is best for the body and spirit and health. Without proper exercise there can be no health, and without health there can be no real beauty.

There is no stronger proof of the sound remedial value of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription than that it restores the wasted form to its wonted roundness.

The mighty restorative power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription speedily causes all womanly troubles to disappear—compels the organs to properly perform their natural functions, corrects displacements, overcomes irregularities, removes pain and misery at certain times and brings back health and strength to nervous, irritable and exhausted women.

It is a wonderful prescription prepared only from Nature's roots with glycerine, with no alcohol, to falsify stimulate. It banishes pain, headache, backache, loss of appetite, nervousness, dragging-down sensations, worry and sleeplessness surely and without loss of time.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. Address: Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. (Advt.)

PERFECTION OF OPERA
DUE TO DIRECTION OF
SIGNOR GATTI-CASAZZA

Mme. Frances Alda, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera company, and the wife of Signor Gatti-Casazza, its director. She will sing the beautiful role of Micaela in "Carmen" on Wednesday night.

Stars No Longer Dictate to Manager—Caprices of Prima
Donna Ignored by Conductor or Toscanini

The smoothness of productions by the Metropolitan Opera company, the perfection of its performances and the perfect harmony between singer and orchestra have been the subject of a great deal of comment by Atlanta opera-goers familiar with productions of past years, and high praise has been given to the managing director of the organization for the past five years, Signor Giulio Gatti-Casazza, who has been the managing director of the organization for the past five years.

The work that Gatti-Casazza and Toscanini, the wonderful conductor, have been doing to make more perfect the artistic beauty of opera, is described interestingly by "Mephisto," a veteran writer for Musical America, who says:

"Certain artistic collisions between certain noted conductors and certain noted artists of the Metropolitan have resulted from the constant shouting of the prompter and the interminable delays between the acts, that it was no uncommon thing for a premiere in one of these opera houses abroad to end in the early morning hours."

This smoothness of production, which has contributed so greatly to the proper understanding of the works produced, has resulted from the gradual introduction of the discipline which, in former years, was sadly lacking in the Metropolitan stage, and for this we owe as we do in many other ways, a debt to the distinguished and sincerely artistic lead of the Metropolitan forces.

It was he as well as his great Italian conductor, Arturo Toscanini, who finally brought order out of the chaos that existed under the rule of his predecessors. This meant that all employed from the humblest chorus girl up to the most distinguished artist, had to work for the ensemble and not for any individual success.

"Under the consuls, in olden days, of Marathon and of Marathon, later on of Grau, of Alibi, of Corried, and even under the dual management of Dippel and Gatti, we had what was called the reign of the great Prima Donna. They fixed their, to suit themselves. Each worked for her individual success, whether her name was Patti, or Lucre, or Gerster, or Lilli Lehmann, or Nordica or Eames.

"They informed the conductor of the cuts in the score that they were accustomed to, just as they informed the stage manager where they were concerned, and where they proposed to go. They had their good friends on the press, who chronicled their individual successes—which was really all they cared for.

"As for how the opera went as a whole they were not concerned.

"The conductor was plainly told to do their bidding and to conduct the various episodes in which they were concerned according to their individual temperament. He was told to transpire up or down, as they felt inclined, or their health permitted. Indeed, everything was subordinate to their imperial wishes."

"STARS RULED SUPREME."
"Nobody had anything to say; they were supreme. The manager bowed before them, as did the enthusiastically responsive members of the directorate."

singers in the minor roles found themselves at a serious disadvantage. They were virtually told to go away and sit down.

"The last battle to be fought was the establishment of the supremacy of the conductor, who, after all, is held responsible for the entire production, public for the general, conscientious interpretation of the work as a whole.

"So, as I said, among the many debts of gratitude which the opera-going and opera-loving public owes to Signor Gatti, this final one is, by no means, the least."

Heavy Criminal Docket
ATHENS, Ga., April 20.—Clarke superior court is in session the present week with Judge C. H. Brand presiding. The judge says that the criminal business is the heaviest he has known in seventeen years, while the civil is the lightest.

PINE PRINTER PERFORMANCES

"It is not merely with works in the regular repertoire, but more particularly with the revival of old and the production of new works that first performances have gone with such smoothness and perfection, as was, in former times, secured only after several repetitions."

"This can best be appreciated by those who have witnessed first nights, even in the leading opera houses in Europe, where the pleasure, as well as interest, was marred by the constant shouting of the prompter and the interminable delays between the acts, that it was no uncommon thing for a premiere in one of these opera houses abroad to end in the early morning hours."

This smoothness of production, which has contributed so greatly to the proper understanding of the works produced, has resulted from the gradual introduction of the discipline which, in former years, was sadly lacking in the Metropolitan stage, and for this we owe as we do in many other ways, a debt to the distinguished and sincerely artistic lead of the Metropolitan forces.

ARCHITECT CAN SEE FINE
POSSIBILITIES FOR FAIR
Landscape Artist Makes Preliminary Examination of Lakewood Grounds

Fine possibilities architecturally for a fair at Lakewood are seen by Robert B. Criddle, landscape architect of the Southeastern fair, who on Monday made a preliminary examination of the ground.

He was accompanied by Nym Hurt, chief of construction; C. E. Kauffman, of the city engineer's office; W. T. Winn, county commissioner, and Walter Cooper, secretary of the chamber of commerce.

Mr. Criddle went with Hal Hunt, building architect of the fair, to Lakewood again Tuesday for a further inspection. Mr. Criddle already sees fine possibilities in park and fair purposes at Lakewood, but his examination, of course, has not progressed far enough as yet for definite report.

TWO CHILDREN REUNITE
PARENTS AFTER TROUBLE

For the sake of their two little children, Mrs. Effie Baker and L. C. Baker, of Norcross, were united after a hearing of a case against Mrs. Baker in recorder's court Monday afternoon. Mrs. Baker is alleged to have deserted her husband and children three months ago. Her mother, Mrs. Emma Hinkle, of Bellwood avenue, located her Saturday night. The usual triangle existed, the mother stated, and G. J. Baldwin was arrested Saturday night as the party in the middle. Judge Johnson Monday gave the husband and wife to go back together and they did so.

ELLA'S SKIRTS PREVENT HER ESCAPE WITH LOOT

Ella Smith's skirts foiled her efforts to escape from the law Tuesday. Mrs. Smith's husband, who was arrested, was taken to the police station. The man leaped to the ground and outstretched the coers, but the woman tripped on her own clothing and was captured and taken to police station.

Appetite Follows
Good Digestion

Nearly everyone indulges their appetite and the digestive organs are abused, resulting in a congestion of poisonous waste that clogs the bowels and causes much misery and distress.

This is a natural, pleasant-tasting remedy, gentle yet positive in action, and quickly restores indigestion, constipation, sick headache, belching, etc. Drug stores sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle and in thousands of homes it is the indispensable family remedy. For free trial bottle write Dr. W. H. Caldwell, 412 Washington St., Monticello, Ills.

FIGHT ON JITNEYS IS LAID TO POWER CO.; INJUNCTION CASE ON the city ordinance is in violation of both the United States constitution and the state constitution, as it seeks to deprive the plaintiffs of property without due process of law.

The ordinance is especially in violation of the state constitution, reads the petition, because the constitution provides that similar classes of property must be taxed equally and the tax on jitney buses is far higher than the tax on taxicabs and other conveyances.

One amendment makes the point that the state legislature has no power to impose restrictions on public carriers such as jitney buses, and even if it had that power, has never delegated it to the city of Atlanta; that the charter granted the city by the legislature states specifically what the powers are and that these do not include the right to impose $5,000 bond on each jitney driver, as provided in the ordinance, nor the right to tax each one from $75 to $150, nor the right to have such vehicles inspected by city officials.

AS TO THE BOND. No bonding company would raise bond for jitney drivers under such an ordinance, continues the petition; for, as the $5,000 bond insures the people of Atlanta against accident and not the jitney drivers, no company would at take this responsibility unless each driver put up $5,000 cash.

This ordinance is a law to prohibit business, not to raise revenue, declares the petition, and thus violates the purpose of Georgia tax laws.

Even were the ordinance constitutional, says the petition, it could not be enforced for against 25 drivers of the jitney bus club who have taken out licenses costing them $6.75 each under the new ordinance, which holds good from April 1 until June 30. Any ordinance passed since April 1—such as the new ordinance—does not apply to those using license, and cannot apply until the license expires at the end of June, declares the petition.

In their demurrer to the petition, the attorney, Maxson and Assistant Attorney, Hills ask the petition be thrown out of court because the plaintiffs have no legal grounds for a restraining ordinance, and in the answer filed to the petition they deny every allegation of the plaintiffs, contending that the ordinance is liberal and fair and is not meant to be prohibitory but was passed to give the public protection from private enterprises operating on the public streets.

With interest was attached to the hearing, which, with arguments and objections, will likely take up the entire day Tuesday. About fifty jitney bus drivers were in court when the hearing began.

JUDGE ROAN'S LETTER TO BE USED IN FRANK PLEA FOR CLEMENCY

was convicted, is always notified by the prison commission.

Many of these notices received by Mr. Dorsey have remained unanswered. In some cases he has written the commission saying that he would make no objection to a lightening of the sentence, but in others, he has written that the offense was aggravated, and urged the commission not to interfere with the court's order.

Mr. Dorsey was asked Tuesday if it was his intention to appear before the commission. He declined to make any statement.

Attorney General Warren Grice, who was designated by Governor Slaton to act with Solicitor Dorsey in representing the state before the United States supreme court in opposition to Frank's appeal, when asked if he had any comment to offer on that court's decision, said:

"Of course the state will take any state, and I would go before the state supreme court to oppose Frank's petition for executive clemency is unfounded. I have performed the duties which the governor designated me to perform."

MASON IS INDORSED FOR CHIEF CLERK TO ORDINARY

The colleagues of Councilman Claude C. Mason in the general council Monday afternoon gave him a very hearty indorsement for the position of chief clerk to the ordinary of Fulton county, for which position he is a candidate on the ticket of Thomas H. Jeffries.

The indorsement, which was drawn up in the form of a petition, was passed among the council members by a friend of Councilman Mason, and every one of them signed it, excepting, of course, Councilman Mason, the number of names being twenty-nine.

The election for ordinary to all the unexpired terms of the late John R. Wilkins will be held Friday, April 30. There are three candidates for ordinary—Thomas H. Jeffries, Paul Donohoe and Judge W. R. Hammond.

GREAT INTEREST SHOWN IN MARKET CONFERENCE

Dan Hughes Receives Many Inquiries From Georgians as to Coming Meeting

From all sections of the state Assistant Commissioner of Agriculture Dan G. Hughes is receiving letters from Georgians who are deeply interested in the conference on marketing to be held at Chattanooga, April 27-30, in connection with the Southern Conference for Education and Industry. These letters indicate that many Georgians will attend the conference to profit by the interchange of views among the experts who will discuss the best means of furthering the "Farm to Table" movement.

Mr. Hughes, who will be the chairman of the conference on marketing, has arranged to have representatives of every marketing agency in the state and in many other southern states present to discuss the problem. Plans worked out by states, by express companies, railroad companies, individuals and other agencies will be considered.

One of the most interesting marketing plans submitted to Mr. Hughes is that devised by Postmaster D. F. Davidson, of Americus, who with the consent of the postoffice department, has prepared a series of bulletins and plans to be sent to producers and consumers. The producer fills in a blank with what he has to market, the price he, asks and quantity on hand; while the consumer fills in a blank indicating what he needs, what he will pay and how much he wants.

"Pour L'Opera"

Here Is an Extract From the Paris Fashion Letter Received by Our New York Office Last Week--It Might Well Be Used as a Resume of What We Have Gathered for Opera Week

"AFTERNOON AND EVENING GOWNS.

Simplicity is the note for these. Logically the new 'line' had to cause the revival of another style which the dressmakers anyhow were trying to bring back since a couple of seasons, which now seems to be introduced again for good, namely, the 1830 style. You can imagine what wide field this artistic fashion has opened to the taste and imagination of our French creators of fashions and to what lovely combinations of colors and soft draperies it leads. Almost all 'Maquignies,' when wearing these gowns, seemed the originals of our 1830 master paintings.

"Tight-fitting waists down to the waist line, and wide skirts, very short—this would be a concise description to give about this style. As to going into details, and whilst we should like to do so, so as to describe every dress to you, we have to refrain from it as we still want to catch today's mail and besides would be afraid to bore you with too many details.

"MATERIALS—laces, lace, and still laces. We cannot emphasize enough how much they are used. In flouncings as well as in narrow widths; in white, ecru, black and white, ecru and white, in silver and gold, plain and embroidered, flat or draped, for waists and for skirts, veiled or veiling, used alone or in combinations with other tissues. Lace is the material. Then come soft satin, chiffon, faille (plain or brocade) and taffetas as the materials mostly used.

"As deserving special mention, we did not want to mix into the above material descriptions the nets which we never saw as much used as this season. Whether plain or with spangle and rhinestone motives, net is an other fundamental feature of all the nice gowns."

The Ready-to-Wear Section assumes the role of a fashion guide and interpreter. The letter from which the above extract is taken comes with the stamp of Paris on it. It is authoritative; it is accurate. We have printed it because it tells in a general way what you will see here tomorrow. But for the particulars, the dresses themselves—we must admit that the real charm, the real glory of this collection of remains for the eyes of women—it is not to be told of. Our Ready-to-Wear buyer spent the last two weeks in New York. He gathered bountifully, beautifully for Atlanta's opera week. So much so that now we can announce

We are more splendidly ready with correct, elegant fashions suitable for the festivities of opera week than in any season since Atlanta has enjoyed opera. We speak of afternoon and evening dresses priced at $15, $18.50, $25 to $50; of silk suits at $25 and upwards; of evening wraps at $15 and upwards.

Seeing is the thing! So take this as an invitation to spend a half an hour or so in the Ready-to-Wear Section tomorrow. See the hundreds of interpretations of the style-ideas mentioned in the above fashion letter.

Lately Arrived Suits at $25.00 to $35.00, Ring True to the Moment's Fashion Notes

NEW IN FACT. That is the summary of the news of the suits—some two hundred fifty in number—that have arrived within the last four days. Our suit buyer has just returned from New York. He was there selecting styles and not picking up things the makers wanted to be rid of. The results are apparent—here are suits that women who follow the fashions want—the tailored styles, with little or no trimming, but so graceful and elegant in line and workmanship—in serges, in poplins, in men's wear materials. Values at $25.00 to $35.00!

THE GATE CITY COTTON MILL NURSERY, which has been opened since last tag day. It is to maintain nurseries like this that the ladies of the Sheltering Arms have inaugurated Tag day. Next Thursday, April 22, is the day and everybody in Atlanta will submit to being tagged on that day for the benefit of this worthy charity. Last year rain cut down the receipts and the committees in charge hope to break all previous records this coming Tag day.

TAG DAY NEXT THURSDAY PROMISES BIG SUCCESS

Mrs. Kiser Announces Regulations Governing Work for Sheltering Arms

The annual tag day of the Sheltering Arms will be held next Thursday, April 22, and on that day Atlantians will pay $100,000 and more and half dollars and dollars for the privilege of having just a little pin tags on their coat lapels as a sign that they have contributed to the support of this splendid institution which takes care of little children during the day while their mothers are at work and cradles them to the mother's night.

Every year the sheltering Arms has tag day, every year they have scores of pretty girls on the streets from April 22, and on that day Atlantians will pay $100,000 and more and half dollars and dollars for the privilege of having just a little pin tags on their coat lapels as a sign that they have contributed to the support of this splendid institution which takes care of little children during the day while their mothers are at work and cradles them to the mother's night.

Each committee should have from four to six young ladies on duty all the time from 9 o'clock morning, before 9 o'clock and till night.

It is also important that all committees be on duty through the lunch hours from 12 o'clock till the assistant chairman, with fresh workers, could not be until night.

Each chairman shall see that every member of her committee wears one of the tags without the official badge.

The committees are asked to confine themselves as far as possible to their own location.

The success of the day depends on full committee.

Our income for the entire year depends from this one day.

Need assistance? The should be provided with the best. Mrs. E. Moore & Sons are headquarters for all tag day, is best in the central world. Take your next prescription to them and see how outstanding they are. 42 N. Broad St. (Advt.)

Pending hearing of a writ of habeas corpus taken out against the city of Atlanta Sunday night by Morris Lubin, whom city detectives arrested Wednesday night and held in Brooklyn, N. GIRLS OF AGNES SCOTT PRESENT BEAUTIFUL PLAY

"The Countess Cathleen." Given on College Campus, Pleases Audience

Before an audience of seven hundred, on a stage carpeted with grass and flanked by flowing shrubs, "The Countess Cathleen," an Irish folk-play, was presented by members of the Protestant Literary society of Agnes Scott college, on the campus at Decatur, Monday night.

The play is a pretty allegory, with its scene laid in ancient Ireland, during one of the great famines. Miss Ray, Harbin, blond and blue eyed, starred in the title role. As a rich and beloved countess, she offers to buy food for her starving people, but some of these people sell their souls to two devils, (Misses Ida Hunt and Hallie Smith, made two very attractive devils), and are about to lose their souls.

The devils, by machiavellian trickery, got content with peasant souls, to save the countess' castle and steal the food. Desperate over the plight of her peasants, the countess sells her own soul to the imp of Satan, and for this act of sacrifice, her soul and the souls of the peasants are all saved.

Much credit is due to Miss Mary L. Cady, who directed the performance; to Miss Mary Bryan, the "mother of the countess"; to Miss Olive Hunt, a "starving peasant"; and Misses Evelyn and Day, Smith, the starving ones' "parents"; to Miss Carolyn Ballantine, as the "father mother" of the countess; and Miss Mary Eades, as the "steward"; to Miss Lucile Williams, the business manager; and Miss Ora Glenn, the stage manager.

The other characters were excellently portrayed by Misses Mary Hiver, Ruth Lawrence and Sarah Webster, as "peasant men"; Misses Lillian Anderson and Jennette Jovner, as "peasant women"; Misses Mary Montgomery, Ruth Nelson, Sarah Patton, Alma Buchanan, Annie Pope Bryan and "Vell Hite" as "fairies"; and Miss Sue MacEachern as an "angel."

The play was a fine production, with the assistance of the Atlanta Ad Men's club.

The lecture will be delivered by Dr. J. Wade Conkling, chairman of the educational committee of the Anti-Tuberculosis association, and in direct line with the work that committee is doing in teaching the public how to avoid this disease. It is realized that only by this method can the spread of tuberculosis be prevented, and Dr. Conkling will tell just what is necessary to avoid it. The public is cordially invited to attend.

MOVIE LECTURE AT THE GRAND ON TUBERCULOSIS

Dr. J. Wade Conkling Will Speak Sunday Night at 8:15 o'clock

There will be a free stereoscopic and moving picture lecture upon the subject of the prevention of tuberculosis at the Grand opera house next Sunday night, April 25, at 8:15 o'clock, given by the Atlanta Anti-Tuberculosis and Virginia Nurse association, under the auspices and with the assistance of the Atlanta Ad Men's club.

The lecture will be delivered by Dr. J. Wade Conkling, chairman of the educational committee of the Anti-Tuberculosis association, and in direct line with the work that committee is doing in teaching the public how to avoid this disease. It is realized that only by this method can the spread of tuberculosis be prevented, and Dr. Conkling will tell just what is necessary to avoid it. The public is cordially invited to attend.

EDUCATORS WILL HOLD MEETING IN CHATTANOOGA

Southern Conference for Education and Industry Will Open Tuesday Week

It is expected that 2,500 visitors, including leading men of the south, will gather in Chattanooga Tuesday, April 26 for the annual session of the southern conference for education and industry. The meeting will last four days, and the program is one of the most ambitious and varied ever attempted by a similar gathering. It will contain material of interest for business men, farmers, educators, ministers and club women.

J. Y. Joyner, of North Carolina, president of the conference, urges the importance of each county, and if possible, each community, being represented by four persons, a business man or banker, a minister, a teacher and a woman. The climax of the program will be reached on Friday, in the session devoted to community growth, in which it will be shown how each community can get the best of its own and its most practical plans for development.

The public schools of Chattanooga and Hamilton county will probably suspend work for the week to enable the local community, being represented by four persons, a business man or banker, a minister, a teacher and a woman. The climax of the program will be reached on Friday, in the session devoted to community growth, in which it will be shown how each community can get the best of its own and its most practical plans for development.

The Tennessee Manufacturers' association will probably hold its annual meeting in connection with the conference, and the Tennessee Bankers' association which meets in Nashville on Wednesday will send a big delegation to participate in the conference on rural credit Thursday morning.

ARBITRATORS ARE NAMED IN A. & W. P. TAX CASE

Arbitrators to represent both the state of Georgia and the Atlanta and West Point railroad in the arbitration of the railroad's 1915 tax returns were announced Monday. The road notified Comptroller General W. A. Wright that it has selected Fuller E. Callaway, of LaGrange, as its arbitrator, and the controller, immediately advised the railroad that he had appointed Chairman M. C. Coulter, of the state railroad commission, to act for the state. In the event these two cannot agree, the governor will name an umpire.

The railroad sought to return its taxes on a valuation of $3,000,000, and the comptroller general fixed an assessment of $4,926,545.

Important Announcement to ATLANTA PUBLIC TRIURE WATER

---The Purest Water in the World---
Can Now Be Obtained Here

A TRIURE WATER STILL is now in operation in Atlanta, prepared to supply The Purest Water in the World for household and office uses at a moderate cost.

TRIURE WATER is three times purified. All mineral and organic impurities are precipitated. Bacteria and disease germs are destroyed and flushed into the sewers where they belong. All chemical salts, noxious vapors, are liberated with the empyreumatic gases. The oxygen expelled in the boiling is returned to the vapor before condensation by a unique patented process. The resulting distillate is of unequalled purity—delicious to the taste, as palatable as the finest spring water—but without the spring's impurities.

TRIURE WATER is rapidly becoming universally known and used. The best hotels and restaurants in many parts of the United States and Canada, ever ready to please their guests, are serving TRIURE WATER exclusively, and proudly announcing the fact on their menu cards. Many manufacturers of food products find it to their advantage not only to use TRIURE WATER, but to advertise the fact to the public.

TRIURE WATER is used by the U. S. Government in its department buildings, war ships and transport ships, training stations, forts, hospitals throughout the army and on the Panama Canal district. Large manufacturing establishments, like the General Electric at Schenectady and the Westinghouse Electric at Pittsburg, supplying TRIURE WATER to their employees, report important savings in general efficiency of their force through the improved health conditions.

TRIURE WATER is recommended by physicians everywhere. It is a universal health improver and protector. It is chemically H₂O—the standard of water purity. It is distilled in the jungles of Yucatan, on the filthy river Neva at St. Petersburg, on the Isthmus of Panama, at the mouth of the Ganges, in towns and cities, from any source of supply, the sea, rivers, ponds, lakes, ditches, salt or fresh, and the product is always the same, absolutely pure, crystal clear, live, delicious, satisfying water.

TRIURE WATER will be delivered in No. 5 demijohns or in cases of six 80 oz. triangle bottles. The latter are most convenient for household use.

Sanitary coolers on attractive stands are provided for offices at a moderate monthly rental.

In case of illness, in families unable to pay even our moderate charge, we will supply TRIURE WATER FREE. Just bring your jugs with a note from your doctor to the TRIURE WORKS, at 370-372 Edgewood Avenue—we will sterilize them and fill them with TRIURE WATER without charge.

Compare the Cost of this Dish to an Expensive Meat Dinner

Here is a fair comparative cost of a meat and a Faust Macaroni dinner for a family of six, showing a clear saving of 85c in favor of Macaroni—for 1 meal only:

3 lbs. of sirloin steak at 35c a lb.	$1.05
Bread and butter, say	-.10
One pkg. Faust Macaroni	$.00
One can of tomatoes	-.10
Bread and butter, as above	-.30
	$.85

Of comparative nutritive values, Dr. Hutchison, the famous dietitian, says that meat contains practically 75% water, macaroni only 10%. In other words, when you pay $1.00 for meat, you pay 75c of that $1.00 for water.

And it's so easy to digest and so easy to prepare Faust Macaroni. Besides serving it as the whole meal, you should serve it often as a side dish.

Crackers Some Deal Litting and Down Gulls; Allen Pitches Well

Crackers Slug Hard and Beat Mobile Easily

Twelve Hits for a Total of Twenty-two Bases Is Crop, Roy Moran Led the Bunch With a Homer and a Triple, Allen Pitches Great Game

MOBILE, April 20.—Atlanta showed a complete reversal of form in all departments of the game here Monday, over what they unceremoniously on Sunday, and this difference noted them as a new team. The work which Allen did in his appearance again the Pelicans in Atlanta, and which he would be wise and unable to get the ball over. But they were badly mistaken in their opinion.

Allen pitched a perfect game, and his work showed that Manager Smith picked a winner in choosing him. Last three hits were made by the Gulls and no more than in the game losing. Roy Moran, who worked which Allen did in his appearance again the Pelicans in Atlanta, and which he would be wise and unable to get the ball over. But they were badly mistaken in their opinion.

Barons Blank Pelicans Again

NEW ORLEANS, April 20.—Birmingham secured two runs and a win over the Barons yesterday, and won yesterday's game from New Orleans, 2 to 0. Knapp fell into a trap set by the Barons, and had to be carried from the field. The pitching of both Bagg and Robertson featured.

Travelers 8, Turbott 6

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 20.—Two singles, a sacrifice and faulty fielding enabled the Travelers to beat the Turbott yesterday, 8 to 6. It was the first victory for Little Rock since April 12. The score was 8 to 6. The winning run was scored by Little Rock, 8 to 6. The winning run was scored by Little Rock, 8 to 6. The winning run was scored by Little Rock, 8 to 6.

Vois 4, Lookouts 2

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 20.—Nashville won their seventh straight game yesterday afternoon, beating the Lookouts, 4 to 2. Meltzer lasted but one inning for Chattanooga. He allowed three singles and a triple, and Nashville scored runs on his mistakes.

Chick Evans Sets New Course Record

SAN FRANCISCO, April 20.—Charles (Chick) Evans, western amateur champion, made the first 10 holes in 60 in the qualifying round of the Panama Pacific Exposition golf tournament, which he won Monday and established a record for the inside course. His score for the 18 holes was 142.

THE GOLF WIDOW SPEAKS

You have kicked in with a serum for the Great White Plague. You have opened a Tophus on the jaw. You have popped an anaesthetic. To relieve the diphtheritic. And the rest of it you've cut out with a saw. But tell me, gentle doctors, are the mortal coil is off. Is there nothing you've discovered in the medicated trough? You have entered into Gargene with a knock-out punch? You have hammered Scarlet Fever to the ropes? You have evened the score of the lawless? To a mild degree of Cancer, And you've killed the drug enticement of the dope. But tell me, learned doctors, is there nothing you can do. For hydrophobic horrors in the heads of husbands who can only rave of Stygies and a Perfect Follow Through?

Just as we start to get prophetic after lamping the first few Yanks to box scores, we recall with what amazing vigor and elation the Yanks tore into the Mackmen last April—and then where the two clubs finished in October.

A TRIFLE TO THE BUNK

It is well enough to rise up semi-weekly and announce that Youth will be served in time. But if you care to plunge somewhat deeper into the situation you may observe that the majority of major league ball clubs this season are figuring their years on the verge of something. The majority of the men who are the backbone of the game are the backbone of the game.

Youth has the speed, the stronger arms and the more robust legs. But Youth lacks the experience and the nerve stamina over the long route. If the Correct Answer means anything in your careless life, look at the all-star club and see how many eminent and ambitious young bachelors have enrolled. Twelve out of fourteen will be sedate, middle-aged married men who have seen an average of eight years' service, including some fairly valuable perquisites of the lawlike as Mathewson, Johnson, Evers, Collins, Cobb, Jackson and others.

ANOTHER WHY

Why is it that sporting pages these days are printing so much about golf? How does this game come in for so much space? R. L. Eason, who has been writing on the subject of golf for some time, says that the reason is that the game is becoming more popular than ever before. The game is becoming more popular than ever before.

ON THE KICKS

Some are born golfers—some are made golfers—and the other 99 per cent are always off their game. They whopie that Jack can't write his name. Neither can Arnold Bennett but 385.

"How much," asks S. J. H., "does Jess Willard know about boxing—foot work, blocking and other details?" How much difference does it make how much he knows as long as he remains 6 feet and 4 inches high, weighs 250 pounds, has a reach of 82 inches, looks in good condition and wears a concrete jaw?

WITHOUT BLINKING

"Is Willard," queries a bystander, "28 years old or 33 years old?" Willard says he is 28. A certain Kansas townsmen says he is 33. If it is up to us to call one of the two a liar, we'll take a chance on hurling the charge into the teeth of the townsmen.

WASN'T THAT ENOUGH?

"Did you ever hear of President Wilson?" That President Wilson's big slump in popularity dated from the printing of the dispatch in which it was shown that after missing an easy putt he merely remarked "Tut-tut," in place of the usual "yes."

Last winter and now, there were two ball players who, according to report and rumor, had lost their entire popularity to a pale blue finish. The Cry Went Forth for that henceforth and forever the day of acclimation was done. Also, it was said that the panning each received would be a good condition and wears a concrete jaw?

Below zero in ownership—the possession of priceless pictures that can only be shown three miles out at sea.

WORLD'S SHORTEST POME

(After reading where T. Cobb muffed his first fly of the year.) WHY?!

Dick Hoblitzel is the latest addition to the world-wide chorus, chanting the following anthem: "Playing great ball—but not for Gary Hermann."

Add Famous Double Play: "Magazine to Landis to the ashan."

THE TIP-OFF

Fanatics who are still so busy to test the flag-flighting power of various clubs are requested to examine minutely this part of the arrangement.

Slide up the speed and power and brains of various clubs in the around second base, and you are fairly well across. In the zone is weak in this second base combination hasn't a green ghost of a fly-Evers; the second is Fletcher, who is the strongest combination is Maran-Herzog and that the Red Sox out of the American League is the strongest is Weaver-Collins, which is the best chance the White Sox.

So far and drop out it will be through comparative weakness here above any other factor.

In the last two years the Phillies have lost Magee, Lobert, Doan, Knabe, Seaton and Chalmers, no less than seven star ball players.

Yet, at this date, Colonel Patrick Moran is able to enter the essence of a first-class army. He hasn't the greatest machine in the world, but George Stallings is willing to testify under oath that he has faced worse in his twenty campaigns. The answer to this seems to be or two and sometimes you can't build one up at all.

Moran had this edge—any club that has Grover Cleveland Alexander in the immediate vicinity has at least twenty-eight victories already counted in.

Charlie Herzog is another who permitted Marans, Hoblitzel, Moran and others to build up the Red grating and then promptly Herzog and that the Red Sox out of the American League is the strongest is Weaver-Collins, which is the best chance the White Sox.

Why not have about 3 inches lopped off? Six inches in height and for the last week a crowd of kids has been following me around the streets, believing I am Jess Willard. What can be done about it to relieve my embarrassment? P. B. C.

As a fame builder and a maker of popularity for his various champions, Tom Jones is probably the best barber Kewanee ever had.
